Re: Public Hearing of September 9, 2021

Dear Senator Dush:

The purpose of my letter is to advise you that Commissioner Stuart Ulsh, our client, who testified at your Hearing as set forth above, wishes to submit to you and the Committee a correction of his testimony found at Pages 50 and 51 of the Transcript of the hearing of that date.

Commissioner Ulsh's Affidavit is enclosed herewith for your consideration. He has also asked me to advise the Committee, if they wish to question him further about the inquiry by Senator Santarsiero, that he is willing to appear either in person or by deposition to respond further.

Commissioner Ulsh regrets any inconvenience that this matter may have caused; however, he believed his answer to be truthful and accurate when given, but does not wish to conclude his testimony without providing anything less than a full and complete response and answer.

Enclosure

cc: Stuart Ulsh, Commissioner

In light of the above, I am prepared to return for questioning regarding this matter, if the Committee wishes.

I regret any inconvenience that this matter may have caused, but I wanted to ensure that the record was complete, truthful, and accurate.

And he will ever pray.

Stuart L. Ulsh
